SHARP ATTACK
REFULSED

Dangerous Condition Relieved Just In Time By "Fruit-atives"

MR. F. J. CAVEN
632 Gerard St. East, Toronto.
For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas in the Stomach. It afterwards attacked my heart, and I had pains all over the body, so I could hardly move around.
I tried all kinds of medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, acting on the advice of a friend, I decided to try "Fruit-atives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes.
I recommend "Fruit-atives" to anyone suffering from indigestion no matter how acute! — FRED J. CAVEN.
Simple indigestion often leads to Heart Attacks, Catarrh of the Stomach and constant distress of mind and body.
If you are bothered with any stomach trouble, and especially if constipation troubles you, take "Fruit-atives".
50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c.
At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-atives Limited, Ottawa.

THE VALUE OF THE RED CROSS

It is as difficult to estimate the true value of the Red Cross as it is to appraise the value to any community of public hygiene and sanitation.
The Red Cross, with its fertile work, is a source of life and health in the world, and no one is disposed to deny that the cost of public hygiene is a valuable price in the world.

Similarly the value of the Red Cross consists just as much in the suffering and in the misery it actually alleviates.
The terrible sufferings of Serbia in the first year of the war illustrated the value of an efficient Red Cross.
Serbia triumphantly resisted the first Austrian attack, but defeated by disease coupled with lack of Red Cross supplies fell an easy prey to the next invasion.
If the soldier remains days after his wound without medical attention, his chance of recovery are slight.
The aim of the Red Cross is to get the wounded into its hospitals as soon as possible, but to do this it requires an elaborate and expensive organization as near the front as possible.

The real proof therefore that the Red Cross is doing its duty is to be found, not in terrible conditions of suffering, but in a perfectly functioning system of relief work where suffering is a minimum. It is the comfort, not the agony of the wound which is the best test of Red Cross efficiency.

Dr. Herbert Bruce, the well known Toronto surgeon who has been an active surgeon in France, has stated that our Canadian Red Cross famous beyond all other Red Cross Societies for its sympathetic treatment of its patients. So that even the English and French wounded express a wish to be taken to a Canadian hospital.

This kind of Red Cross service for which Canada has won an untold reputation, is only possible with perfect equipment and with continued generous contributions from the Canadian public.
London, Feb. 11.—The British cruiser Arcturion struck a mine today off the east coast of England, according to a statement issued by the British official press bureau. The text of the official statement says: "His Majesty's ship Arcturion, Commander Reginald Tybitt, has struck a mine off the east coast. It is feared she will be a total wreck. About 100 men were lost."
Bowden, Alta., Feb. 11.—Fire early yesterday wiped out nearly the whole business section of the town, occasioning a loss of about $50,000, part of which is covered by insurance.
Three aliens employed as janitors in the Edmonton public schools have been dismissed.

Heart Would Beat Violently.

Nerves Seemed to Be Out of Order.

The heart always works in sympathy with the nerves, and unless the heart is working properly the whole nerve system is liable to become unstrung, and the heart itself become affected.
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will build up the nervous system, and strengthen the weak heart, so that the sufferer will enjoy the very best of health for years to come.
Mrs. John N. Fries, Hurville, Ont., writes: "On reading your testimony for the benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I wonder for me. At times my heart would beat violently, and my nerves seemed to be out of order. I had used a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I feel like recommending them to others that they might receive benefit as I did."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills have been on the market for the past twenty-five years, and are universally considered to be unrivalled as a medicine for all disorders of the heart or nerves.
Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. per box, 3 boxes for $1.50, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A.T. & M.R.L. RESOLUTIONS

The following resolutions were passed by the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League at its annual convention on February 1, 2 and 3:

1.—Inasmuch as an appeal is being made to the Dominion parliament looking toward the total prohibition throughout the Dominion of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor while the war lasts, therefore, be it resolved that this convention of the Alberta Temperance and Moral Reform League express its hearty endorsement of the appeal, and that it assures the temperance forces in the other parts of the nation that it will give its best support and service in securing this nation-wide result, if the opportunity shall be assured, to bring the matter to a vote.
Resolved, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Dominion government, to the Dominion Alliance, and to each of the members of the Dominion parliament from the province of Alberta.

2.—Resolved that this convention appreciates the action of the Premier of Alberta as to the promise given by him to introduce at an early date a Bill providing for the extension of the franchise to the women of the province, and would respectfully request that a literary or some other efficient test for both male and female voters be incorporated in the proposed Bill affecting the Election Act.

3.—That this Committee recommend to the convention now in session, that approval be given to the movement made in many parts of the Dominion and voiced in the house of commons by J. J. Hughes M.P. for Kings, P.E.I., asking for amendment to the British North American Act, giving the provinces power to prohibit the importation and manufacture of liquors in any province that may so legislate, and thus looking towards total prohibition for the Dominion. Further, that copies of this resolution be sent to all members of the Federal parliament from Alberta.

SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE TO BE

HELD IN EDMONTON

At the request of the Edmonton Exhibition Association, a school of Agriculture will be held under the direction of the provincial department of agriculture and fairs, and institutes, assisted by the various railway companies, on the old Man-it, Square, in Edmonton, opposite the Post office, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 21, 22 and 23.

Course of instruction will be given in live stock, dairying, agronomy and poultry raising. Five carloads of produce will be being carried on the trip which is being made all through the province, and will be used in giving instructions in breeding, breeding, care, feeding, and management. The champion Short horn steer at the recent Ontario Fat Stock Show has been secured and is to be used for demonstration purposes in this school. Everybody is cordially invited, the program for the three days being:

Monday, Feb. 21.—Clydesdale horses, 10 to 12 a.m. Herderson horses 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Judging horses; 3 to 5 p.m. Public meeting, 8 p.m.
Tuesday, Feb. 22.—Belt cattle, 10 to 12 a.m. Dairy cattle, 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. Dairying, 3:30 to 5 p.m. Dairying and Swine lectures, 8 p.m.
Wednesday, Feb. 23.—Sheep, 10 to 12 a.m. Swine, 1:30 to 3:00 p.m. p.m. Grain and weeds, 3 to 4:30 p.m.
Poultry lecture, 8 p.m.

IN MEMORIAM

In fond remembrance of our dear father, Luther Burchard McShane, Wetaskiwin, Alberta, who departed this life March 1, 1914. Gone, but not forgotten.

We miss thee from our home, dear Father,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast, We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy loving footsteps, We miss the voice that's still'd, A place is vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

We miss thy kind and willing hand, Thy fond and earnest care, Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.

The Family.

CALL 100
WOMEN

Ask them what they think of Zant-duk and you will be surprised how many of them would tell you it is the best known health tonic, and that it should be in every home.
A contest in "Everywoman's World" recently proved this.
Women from coast to coast have proved by actual test that Zant-duk is unequalled for the relief of coughs and colds, for the relief of asthma, for the relief of bronchitis, for the relief of influenza, for the relief of pneumonia, for the relief of fever, for the relief of indigestion, for the relief of constipation, for the relief of all ailments of the throat and head of a family you owe it to yourself to have Zantduk always handy!
If you have not yet tried Zant-duk, get a box at once.

ary 23—Red Cross Day—and buy it from a Red Cross supporter.
Prince George, B.C., Feb. 12.—It is raining here today, and if the mild weather continues this city will be threatened by floods within the next forty-eight hours. The thermometer is forty above this morning and coming up. Last week it was forty below. January was one of the coldest months on record, and there has been heavy snowfall, now melting fast.

Calgary, Feb. 11.—That an effort has been made to damage or destroy the Calgary high school appears to be certain from the information obtained last afternoon. It was discovered on Monday last that a quantity of dry wood with matches attached, and that matches had against the radiator had been placed in a store room of the assembly hall of the collegiate institute.

London, Feb. 14.—The Daily Express today gives prominence to dispatches from Switzerland announcing the failure of two large banking institutions in the south of Germany —one with liabilities of over $150, 000,000. The Daily Express says "it is the belief that these are forerunners of other and more extensive failures, due to the ruin of Germany export trade and the depreciation in the value of the mark."

La grippe is claimed to be a silk stocking disease, that is, only the pampered favorites of fortune are subject to it. The poor man who hasn't too much to eat, nor too much coal to render his house oppressive with the heat does not contract the grippe. Those in the district who have not had it can take their choice, whether to be poor and escape, or to be rich and take their medicine—grippe.

The fire bell rang for the first time this year last Saturday noon at a called the fire-throwers to a blaze that threatened the Dayton & Ty-nich live hay. The fire was distinctly from the fire, and the hay which were immediately hurried out.
The men worked hard and in an hour had the fire under control and the burn out of danger. Practically no damage was done and it was only the fast and hard work of the volunteers that saved the big barn from destruction—Viking News.

Rio Janeiro, Feb. 12.—The German steamship Assumption, interned at Para, requested permission to approach a wharf to take water aboard under cover of fog she turned around and headed toward the sea. The Brazilian cruiser Republica and the auxiliary fleet fired shots and the Assumption did not stop they fired at her with projectiles. The German steamship then stopped and was taken to harbor. The captain later stated that he had no intention of escaping. The local authorities have opened an investigation.

THE HISTORY OF TEA

While tea as an article of commerce first became known to the world as a product of China, the best authorities are agreed that the plant was not a native of China, but was imported there at an early date from India. Its introduction to China is placed as far back as the time of Confucius. Various more or less obscure references are made to tea in the writings of Chinese authors from about 2700 B.C. down to the commencement of the Christian era.

A later Chinese writer named Cha Pu tells us that tea was used for medicine purposes only down to the sixth century, A.D., but after that it began to be drunk as a beverage. A legend had been preserved among the Chinese of how the tea plant was first discovered, and it is interesting enough to be worth narrating. An Indian prince named Djirana, the legend runs, visited China about the beginning of the sixth century, A.D. for the purpose of converting the inhabitants to the Buddhist faith. This missionary was famed far and wide for his great piety and the severe self-denials of his life. Among other remarkable things he laid upon himself was that of foregoing sleep. One day, however, nature proved too strong for him, and his eyes involuntarily closed during one of his lengthy vigils. Awakening, he was overcome with remorse, and, resolving to make it impossible for him to be assailed by the weakness of the flesh, he cut off his eyelashes and cast them away. Happening the next day to pass the same place, his attention was attracted by the appearance of a new plant in exactly the same spot where his eyelashes had fallen. He picked some of the leaves and ate them, and finding himself much refreshed and invigorated thereby, and thinking that this wonderful phenomenon was a miraculous gift from heaven, he extolled the virtues of the plant and recommended its use to all his followers. Tea did not find its way into Europe until the middle of the sixteenth century. In 1567 the first tea house was established in London, and from that time onward the popularity of tea grew steadily among the well-to-do classes. That it was a decided luxury is sufficiently evident from the fact that at that time the price of tea ranged from 45 to 110 per pound, and it was a hundred years before it could be bought for less than twenty shillings per pound.

The Chinese did not realize the magnitude of the blessing that the plant missionary had bestowed upon them. Had they done so, China might have remained to this day the premier tea-growing country. Instead, however, of studying the nature and habits of the plant, and ascertaining by way of experiment, what soils were best adapted to its cultivation, they left it pretty much to take care of itself, and the result of these centuries of neglect is that the tea plant in China has gradually become stunted in appearance and has deteriorated in quality. This decay was not limited to the tea gardens of China alone. Owing to the transplanting of Chinese tea in the Indian gardens, the latter were more or less infected, and the problem that engaged the energies of the Indian planters for many years was how to eradicate the Chinese varieties.

The history of tea in India is a comparatively modern affair. The earliest mention of it being grown there is in 1870, and about that time the famous Indian viceroy, Warren Hastings, was instrumental in introducing some varieties of the Chinese plant into India. Many years elapsed, however, before any serious effort was made at cultivating it on a large scale, and it was only when the tea plant was discovered (about 1823) to be growing naturally in certain parts of India that any serious effort was displayed in regard to its cultivation. Shortly after that the British government in Britain's big dependency, militated against a big together with other troubles of the progress being made in the tea industry. It was not, in fact, till near the middle of the century that tea-growing in India was placed on a sound footing.

It is in Ceylon, however, that we find the tea plant reaching its full perfection. The climate of that island, owing to the heavy rainfall, is pre-eminently suited to the cultivation of the plant. After a number of experiments had been successfully conducted, the first plantation was opened up in 1867. That year there were ten acres under cultivation. 30 years later (1897) the acreage under tea was over 40,000, and about 100 million pounds were exported. This will give some idea of the extraordinary success of the tea industry in Ceylon.

THE WINTER DAY

The leaden clouds were blown away the sun got busy overhead; it was a winter day, without a gleam of fish, critics said. The judges who had passed on days, at many a state and county fair, admitted that it wasn't a bad day for a sample anywhere. I walked nine miles just to inhale the crisp, keen air that braced like wine; it seemed to render sound and sense alert, spry, and full of mine. And nearly every man I met was grumbling at that perfect day. "We do not want spring weather yet," it had for us. "I heard men say, 'Such weather will relax the pores and leave us open to disease, and when the summer comes, we'll have rheumatism in the knees, 'rashes' on the skin, and all sorts of ailments to kill off human wrecks, and when again the blizzard tears, we'll have a bad time of it.' I got disgusted often, when there are so many jays on earth, who simply won't indulge in smiles, but die up in a jiffy's worth. The sun may shine, and breezes sweep as Eden's spicy air may blow, and still they stink with all their feet and make a specialty of woe—Walt Mason.

TO THOSE THEY LEFT BEHIND

(A Poem for the Patriotic Fund)

Your wives file round about your homes, And give you of their care,
Some of the boys who went left wives Us kind and just as fair;
Your wives have all the joys they need,
Their dresses warm and neat—How could you see a soldier's wife, Ill clad upon the street?

You have your little children safe, You watch their happy play, They laugh and romp about your knees, Still you're as glad as they;
Some boys who went had children too,
Who oft their days beguiled; God loves the children; He'll love those,
Who helped a soldier's child.

You still possess a mother,
To give her love to you;
The boys who went have mothers too,
Who dearly love them too;
Then for the fond old mothers Who watch and fret and pray, Raise above all sadnesses, And give your mite today.

You have your father living, But age has round him elated.
Yet he prides him how he would fight, If he were strong and young;
The soldier boys left fathers As noble and as true;
Give, give for those old grey haired men Who gave their sons for you.

And there are others dear to you Whom you are joyed to tend, Old folks to whom you long have been A comfort and friend;
The boys who went left these ones too Appealing to your store, You will not miss all that is asked,
So give a little more.

Thus giving and thus helping You will be aiding on The struggle that will have no end
'Till victory has shown; Each bill you give is a shell Shot at the fiend's heart; Shoot, shoot and shoot until that hell Is shot and rent apart.

Oh! drop those dollar bombs until Our kinsmen German foes Are beaten back to the bayous.
From which at first they rose;
Give, give your brave assistance Until the earth is free—Upon the struggle rests the fate Of you as well as me.

—M. A. Hargadon.

THE TIME TO ACT

The old saying has it "there is no time like the present." That this applies with too good a force to the selection of good dairy cattle, will be admitted by every thoughtful dairyman. Selection may be made on the evidence of certain well known external indications of good milking qualities with special attention paid to the udder, loin, skin, barrel, etc. But no matter how skilled the expert judge of dairy 'quality' in a cow may be, he is not infallible as to the amount of hard cash that any one cow in the herd will earn in a year. He may be, the ordinary farmer, too, may be considerably mistaken in his judgment. One system will give him accurate results, that of selection by dairy records. It is easy to weigh and sample, it is easy to add up a few figures for each cow and it is easy to compare totals, and it is eminently satisfactory to know for certain which cows are best to keep and breed from.

Now is the time to act, prepare to keep records all season; write the dairy division, Ottawa, for free milk record forms, either three times a week, or daily. You will never regret it.—C.F.W., Ottawa.

The money spent on liquor in Canada would equip and maintain an army of one hundred thousand men. And yet, for a selfish indulgence that does good to nobody, this sum is squandered at a time when Canada has the greatest struggle in history on her hands.

Was All Choked Up Could Hardly Breathe.

BRONCHITIS
Was The Cause; The Cure Was DR. WOOD'S Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. Garnet Burns, North Augusta, Ont., writes: "I caught a dreadful cold, going to town, and about a week after I became all choked up, and could hardly breathe, and could scarcely sleep at night for coughing. I went to the doctor, and he told me that I was getting bronchitis. My husband went to the druggists, and asked them if they had a cough medicine of any kind that they could recommend. The druggist brought out a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I started using it, and it completely cured me of my cold. I cannot tell you how thankful I was to get rid of that nasty cold. I shall always keep a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup on hand, and I shall only be too glad to recommend it to all others."

There are a lot of imitations on the market, so when you go to your druggist or dealer see that you get "Dr. Wood's," put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; the price 25c and 50c. The genuine is manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

R.N.W.M.P. IN ALBERTA

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—An order-in-council has been passed renewing the agreement between the federal government and the governments of Alberta and Saskatchewan with regard to the continuation of the Royal North-West Mounted Police force in the provinces. The agreement is for a five year period, but may be terminated either by the provinces or by the Dominion at any time on one year's notice. The Dominion agrees to keep a force of 250 mounted police in each province, and to administer the force in co-operation with the provincial justice departments. Each province agrees to contribute $75,000 per year towards the cost of maintaining the force, and to bear all the cost of the maintenance and the transport of prisoners.

TO STAY OR GO

In the great war, Canadians have a three-fold obligation. We shall continue to furnish tens of thousands of men for the fighting line. We should continue to produce the greatest possible quantities of foodstuffs and munitions for the use of the allies. We should continue to buttress the financial position of the Empire to the utmost of our ability. The fulfilment of these obligations of these purposes call for all that we have of resolution, foresight and organizing genius. Several factors in the existing situation demand prompt attention. Some men who should go to the front have not yet awakened to a sense of their duty. Others, whose obligations here at home in the Empire's interest are paramount, have not the moral courage to remain out of a uniform.

At a time when increased agricultural production is essential to the country and to the Allies cause, some of the district representatives of the Ontario department of agriculture have left their positions in order to enlist. Some Ontario farmers will only partly worked because some have put on khaki, leaving the old people to look after the place. It is estimated that, largely owing to a withdrawal of men for the army, the area in the prairie provinces to be seeded this year may be greatly reduced. A decline of 375,000,000 of a hundred million dollars in the agricultural output for 1916 would materially curtail our capacity to absorb domestic war loans and finance British munition orders in this country.

Turning to the factories, it is discovered that some of the most skilled mechanics have enlisted. Here and there one of these men was the 250-cd of an entire factory gang and his removal seriously reduces production. Earlier in the year hundreds of skilled mechanics were taken from Canada to British munition factories and other Canadian skilled mechanics are being brought back from the front to work in English plants. When these men went, it seemed the wise thing to let them go, but the raising of 250,000 troops and changing economic conditions have fundamentally altered the situation. The new factors must be recognized if the withdrawal of 250,000 more men is not to cripple the country industrially and agriculturally for effective participation in the war.

It seems to the Daily News that some organization should be possible by means of which the men who should go to the front can be persuaded to go and those who should stay at home prevailed upon to remain. There must be a way of getting at every man personally and appealing to him to do his duty whether that duty leads him to forsake some unnecessary employment in Canada, or abandon the high hope of valorous deeds at the front. Only by some such method can the Dominion continue to throw its full weight into what may still be a long war.—Toronto Daily News.

ONE FARM HAND TO EACH HUNDRED ACRES

Owing to the great scarcity of farm laborers which is threatening to hinder the development of the Ontario farms, the Ontario Farmers' association waited on the minister of agriculture for Ontario and have requested him to get in touch with recruiting officers in the rural districts and endeavor to arrange, if possible, that at least one capable farm hand be left on each hundred acre farm in the province, so that the campaign for an increased production may not fail in 1916.

The splendid accommodation offered by the Armories was taxed to its utmost with soldiers and civilians on Thursday evening last, the occasion of the unveiling of the Honour Roll, containing the names of those who have thus far left Red Deer and district to serve their king and country.—News.

Burdock Blood Bitters
CURED HIM.

Mr. H. N. Manderson, Stettin, Alta. writes: "About twenty-five years ago, in the Province of Quebec, I came rather turning up my toes with dyspepsia. A cousin of mine, who had been cured by Burdock Blood Bitters, in about two weeks I could eat anything from raw fat beef to collected butter, and I was able to do the job, and I have never been troubled with my stomach since. You would say that this is a wonderful cure, but I could only see what we sometimes have to live on in this country; ham, cold cooked beans, etc."

A GREAT WORK

Great Britain has recently completed in India the greatest irrigation system the world has ever known. Had it happened in the United States there would have been regard of jubilation over the event. John Ball does it as part of the day's work, without any bluster or flag waving, and at once proceeds to the next job, whatever it may be.

In one part of the Punjab district of India there is a well-watered area and in another part there has been since time began a matter of 1,500,000 acres of excellent though arid land, useless unless irrigated. To get the water from one district to another was the task the British set themselves, and the work is now finished. It includes 222 main canals and nearly 24,000 miles of channels, irrigating 2,500,000 acres that will produce under cultivation yearly crops valued at $11,100,000. In comparison with this work the United States has 2,540,000 acres irrigated by twenty-five irrigation projects that have cost the country $86,000,000, where the cost of the Punjab work has been $35,000,000.

No less interesting than the work itself is the policy of the government of the Punjab with this work. The United States has 2,540,000 acres irrigated by twenty-five irrigation projects that have cost the country $86,000,000, where the cost of the Punjab work has been $35,000,000.

THE PREVAILING DISEASE

An ache in the back and a pain in the head, A choke in the throat and a yearning for bed,
That's the Grippe.

A river of heat, then a shiver of cold A feeling of being a hundred years old, A willingness even to do as you're told,
That's the Grippe.

An arrow of pain, now 'n this place now 'n that,
A feeling 'n doubt as to where you are at,
That's the Grippe.

A stupid sensation, of course it is new,
A foolish depression, why should you feel blue?
A doubt as to whether this really is you,
That's the Grippe.

Strange visions at night, that deprive you of rest,
A taste 'n your mouth and a weight on your chest,
That's the Grippe.

A tired sensation that runs through your veins, A queer combination of aches and of pains,
A rapid admission of absence of brains,
That's the Grippe.

A marvellous weakness, come on in a day,
A peasant wonder "How long will it stay?"
That's the Grippe.

A season of fever, a season of freeze
A quivering weakness that's felt at the knees, Says: "Ever there was a cussed disease, It's the Grippe."

—James Madden.

Vancouver, Feb. 14.—Recruits for the British Columbia bantam regiment will be sought for in Alberta and Saskatchewan as well as in British Columbia. Volunteers must be under five feet four inches in height. The headquarters of the regiment is at Victoria, B.C.

CONSERVE ALL THE FERTILIZER ELEMENTS

A recent United States agricultural bulletin says:

"In the unusual conditions existing in the fertilizer trade, it is important that all fertilizing materials on the farm, especially those containing nitrogen, should be conserved. All fertilizer ingredients already existing in the soil should be utilized and developed to the fullest extent. A great deal can be accomplished in this direction by deep plowing, constant cultivation, and thorough tillage. There should be a proper system of rotation. Especially where one crop has been grown for several years, a different one should be planted this year. Green manures and a cover crop should be used as much as possible in their proper rotation. Of the organic substances, manure, both solid and liquid, is the most important and should be utilized wherever possible. All material of an organic nature, such as leaves, and bedding of various sorts, should be composted and the compost applied to the soil. Special attention should be given to the conservation of wood ashes. Depending on the character of the wood, they contain potash in quantities varying ordinarily from 3 to 10 per cent. All trimmings, brush cuttings, etc., etc., should be burned and the ashes derived therefrom utilized."

The application of lime to many soils is of undoubted value. Through the availability of the fertilizing elements in the soil may not be greatly increased by its use, the resulting improvement in physical and bacterial conditions may increase the productivity of the soil considerably."

WOMAN ALL RUN DOWN

Made Strong and Well By Vinol

Waynesboro, Pa.—"I was all run down after a hard spell of bronchitis so it was hard for me to keep about. I had pains in my chest and took cold easily. A friend asked me to try Vinol. I did and it built me up so I am strong and well and I am able to do my household work. I had not done for three months before taking Vinol."—Mrs. Y. R. Houghton, Waynesboro, Pa.

Vinol creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure blood and creates strength. Your money back if it fails. T. F. Ball, Druggist, Wetaskiwin, Alberta.

MALMO

An educational meeting was held in the church at Malmo on Tuesday February 16, in spite of the snow storm and cold weather there was a fair attendance and everyone seemed to be satisfied with the explanation of the Municipal Act as a great many things were learned by it. The speakers at the meeting were the deputy minister of municipal affairs, H. J. Montgomery, M.P., and E.
E. Rasmussen, reeve of the Municipality of Montgomery.

Some of the Wetaskiwin students from Malmo came out on the 11th to attend a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Breidenburg. One of the students had his hand badly frozen.
A ski, consisting and musical party was given on Saturday night by the young people at Kingsville. As the weather was much milder at the lake side the young folks enjoyed a sporty moonlight evening.

The rumor is that P. Peterson, one of the most prosperous farmers of the district, intends to lease his farm and go into business.

HILLSIDE

Mr. Henry Young and Miss Miller were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L.
R. Marr on Sunday.

Mr. Willis Schwartz spent Sunday at Mr. J. Johnson's.

Mr. Leslie Marr has been sick the last week from the effect of eating too much goose on Sunday last. He was unable to take his Patriotic picture to Wetaskiwin on Saturday last to be sold to the high bidder for the profit of the Patriotic Fund.

Mr. L. R. Marr marketed a fine hunch of beef cattle on Thursday of last week.

Sherman Wager of Scottsdale, made a business trip to Hillside on Monday.

Roger Howes has been hunting horses this last week.

The Hillside folks feel in debt to George Vroman for keeping the water road open.

LEWISVILLE

Miss Edna Keever left the fore part of the week for the north country.
The latest fun in our district is to have parties and dances on Sunday evenings. The R.N.W.M.P. will be on the job next time. All our neighbors were to the party at the old store on Sunday evening.

All the snow has melted from our district. We have had fine weather for the last week which makes up for the recent cold spell.

Mrs. L. B. McShane is attending the dance again.

If this weather holds out we will soon see the Pords on the road.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPER IS TO YOU

"Life in a great city is like life in an enchanted forest," says a brilliant essayist, John Cowper Powys.
"One never knows what lurks open or what exultant humdrum on a may encounter. And the little ways of all one's scurrying and burrowing and chuckling and nodding and winking housemates. To go through the world expecting adventures is to find them sooner or later. But one need only cross one's threshold to find adventure."

The newspaper fetches adventure to your door—or leads you over your threshold into the forest of adventure. The newspaper on your doorstep brings company, strange people, romances, weird and living realities, absorbing interest, troubling life; admits you into the great, intimate, vital experience of the whole world of fellow beings, makes you one in sharing their triumphs, tragedies, sorrows, joys, sympathies and emotions.

You regard the newspaper as a companion, matter-of-course. Did you stop to reflect that it is the vital which imparts to you the life blood of humanity at large? That it is you: principal medium of intelligence and source of information?
That it alone feeds you with the strength for keeping on with your world and maintaining your life-hold with men? That it supplies the most significant data for your advices, or needed information for your household? That it furnishes the topics of much of your conversation and most of your gossip? That it caters to your pleasures, bulletins your amusements, invites you out to yourself, plays to your fancy, tickles your humor, provides most of your jokes, affords an unending companionship that is lonely hours and finally keeps yourself alive? That without it life would be a blank to you, and you'd be fit only for the poetry of the Dark Ages?

ALL SINGLE MEN IN

BRITAIN CALLED OUT

London, Feb. 15.—An official proclamation calling up the remaining single men under the Derby plan and the Military Service Act, was posted today. The call to the colors will have the effect of enrolling all single men of military age who have not yet been exempted.

Single men who did not attest under the Earl of Derby's plan a result to compulsory military service at a London dispatch of Saturday. For-casting today's call, said the newspaper, speculatively summons might be attributed to the many recent consultations between the minister of munitions and the war office.

portion of a Judge or Master of the Supreme Court of Alberta, Judicial District of Edmonton, by George L. Owen Auctioneer at Camrose, Alberta, on Saturday, the 4th day of March, 1916, at the hour of 12 o'clock noon, the East Half of Section One (1), and the North East Quarter of Section Two (2), both in Township Forty-three (43), Range Sixteen (16), of the 14th Meridian in the said Province, containing together by admeasurement, Five Hundred and Six (506), acres more or less, excepting thereout Two (2) acres more or less taken for a roadway to His Majesty the King, as described in Certificate of Title No. 484 N.W.T.

The Vendors are informed with regard to this land as follows: That of the said East Half of Section One (1), about 60 acres are arable land of which 10 has been cultivated.
There is in addition 20 acres of wood and 20 acres of scrub on said land. The said land is excellent hay land. The buildings on this half section consist of a one story frame dwelling 14 x 18 with stone foundation; frame granary 10 x 28; a frame barn 48 x 24; a chicken house;
